Easy & Effective

'Direct method' is used in class where use of English is avoided! Learning to speak natively rather than focusing on tedious grammatical structures! After taking my classes, my students speak Cantonese fluently; many migrated to Hong Kong and China with the language.

I have been teaching Cantonese; Reading and Writing Chinese since 2004. I was first trained in a language school to teach Cantonese using, what it's commonly called, 'Direct Method'. Use of  English is avoided in class so as to create a perfect language environment for YOU learning to speak natively.

As such, it doesn't mean that we are conversing randomly in class. You are first taught with the commonly occur conversations. Building from there, we work it backward, in following lessons, to learn how to form sentences and questions. All lessons are taught methodically!

I have a strong Counselling and Psychology background. I employ my knowledge and skills in Educational & Cognitive psychology, group facilitation in class and in producing my self-written textbooks. I spend hours and hours in libraries researching to perfect my teaching materials. I LOVE teaching! I ensure my teaching and my textbooks are of the highest standard!

The last but not the least, my empathy to the needs of others is highly developed. You are well looked after in class!

Testimonials

"Bingo! You have just found the right person to teach you Cantonese"

If you are serious about learning a language Ken is The Man. He took on my husband, myself, a 9 year old girl and a 4 year old boy and got results. His interactive games/ activities suited the kids and got them learning while the harder to teach parents got clued up quickly. A great help and great fun. Would have done more but actually moved to Hong Kong!
